Update 10: April 5 Tornado County Services

Due to the damage caused by the April 5 tornado, several county services have had to move operations from the Pembroke Courthouse Complex to adjacent buildings or to the South Bryan Administration Building. This list will be updated as changes are made.

Animal Control

- Both locations are open for adoptions by appointment.
- Call the Richmond Hill Shelter at (912) 851-3817.
- Call the Pembroke Shelter at (912) 653-3816.

Community Development

- Permit fees are waived for those rebuilding damage associated with the tornado.
- Submit for building permits through our online portal Evolve Public \(infovisionsoftware.com\).
- Residents are encouraged to apply for the necessary permits, including electrical, as part of the service is verifying contractors are licensed in the state of Georgia.
- You do not need permits for fence repairs, roof repairs, or to secure your property.
- All other Community Development business can be handled at the Richmond Hill location at 66 Captain Matthew Freeman Drive.
- Email dmonaco@bryan-county.org or call (912) 756-7962 for more information.
