Weather Refuge in Bryan County: Hurricane Helene

For Immediate Release:

Bryan County, GA (September 26, 2024) – Bryan County is expected to feel the effects of Hurricane Helene beginning this evening with conditions deteriorating during the night. If you live in a mobile home or other structure that may not be safe during the storm, weather refuges will be opening on Thursday, September 26th at 6:00 PM. The weather refuges will be located at Mikell Foxworth Gym, 104 Ash Branch Rd in Pembroke, GA 31321, and Timber Trail Gym, located at 508 Timber Trail in Richmond Hill, GA 31324. The weather refuges will remain open until Friday, September 27 and 12:00 PM.

If you decide to utilize the weather refuges, be there before midnight, as the weather may be unsafe for you to travel in after that time. Bring what you would need to make it through the night. This includes chairs, cot, mats, pillows, blankets, medication, food, and entertainment (a book, fully charged iPad and phones, etc.) NO FOOD WILL BE PROVIDED, nor will showers or access to electrical outlets.

Law Enforcement will be on-site during the hours the weather refuge is open
